

NASIAKOS

NEMEA

You get a wine that makes you go "Oh!" This is lush, rich, filled with fruit and incredibly tasty. The tannins are ripe enough to make this approachable now, but there is support for the fruit too. It isn't a simple fruit bomb. It has freshness and a long finish. And it is very delicious. This is a big overachiever. Will it hold and develop any? Maybe. But if you drink it in the short to mid-term you won't be disappointed; you'll get a lot of wine for your money and you won't care.

Ageing: 12 months in French Oak.
